GE Lighting has appointed

dwp has appointed regional managing director Robert Troup, currently based in Dubai, to head up its North Asia region from Shanghai, China.

The design firm has set its sights on further expansion and development in the region.

“I am very proud to be appointed by dwp as regional managing director for this exciting territory,” said Troup.

“With two successful, vibrant dwp design studios in the region, we have a growing portfolio of visionary and innovative projects, showcasing the talents of our international architects and interior designers.”

Troup has more than 25 years experience in the industry, throughout Asia, the Middle East and UK. A registered architect and member of RIBA, he has a portfolio directing and managing a top-tier design firm, including commercial and residential projects,
