dwp Annual Cocktail Party

"Celebrating the dwp dream, bringing Thai designs to the world" was the theme of the international architecture and interior design firm's cocktail party at Sukhothai Hotel in Bangkok, Thailand on 24 February 2011.

Headquartered in Thailand but with projects worldwide, dwp's choice of theme transformed the Sukhothai Hotel into a spectacular art gallery to promote Thai design and showcase of the firm's award-winning portfolio. The place was packed with associates, supporters and friends who mingled and viewed the firm's work while enjoying fine food and wine.

dwp also took the opportunity to announce its F Hotel project in Asia and the Middle East, where the glamour and glitz of the 24/7 Fashion TV channel will translate into fashion-inspired architecture and interior spaces.
