FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

dwp | design worldwide partnership unites with Suters Architects (Australia), creating 'dwp | suters' for integrated architecture, masterplanning and interior design solutions

dwp | design worldwide partnership recently united on an agreement with Suters Architects, one of Australia's top ten architectural practices, to create a brand new integrated design solutions collaboration 'dwp | suters'.

World-class architecture and interior design firm dwp has entered into a collaboration with Suters Architects (Australia), to create a brand new entity 'dwp | suters', continuing with their expansion of their spheres of expertise and service offering to clients worldwide.

dwp | suters is an exciting venture for the architecture and interior design industry. It sees the coming together of dwp | design worldwide partnership and Suters Architects of Australia. These two unified, formidable design forces present more than 50 years' architectural experience, garnered by Suters, one of Australia's top ten architectural practices, and the award-winning design flair of one of Asia and the Middle East's most successful and innovative design companies, dwp. With over 450 professionals located in 15 offices across 10 countries, dwp | suters in Australia, represents an extended and impressive range of capabilities, across industries, to both local and international clients. Together, the combined design services of dwp and dwp | suters (Australia) include masterplanning, architecture and interior design for hospitality, residential, retail, civic, education, health, seniors living, sporting, workplace, banking and finance, industrial, transport and defence projects.

“dwp is delighted at this next chapter in our continuing quest to ensure a one-stop integrated design service offering to our extensively varied client portfolio. As Suters Architects share our vision of providing excellence and the highest international standards, we are both incredibly excited and proud to be collaborating with such a highly reputable and award-winning company, as Suters Architects. We very much look forward to delivering our first completed projects together,” remarked Brenton Mauriello, CEO for dwp | design worldwide partnership.

“We have always been as passionate about delivering innovative, visionary design solutions as we are about working in close collaboration with our clients. Now, as dwp | suters, we can offer our clients greater insights into international trends, proven innovation and a greatly expanded resource network right across Australia, Asia and the Middle East,” stated Leone Lorrimer, CEO of Suters Architects.

dwp | suters aims to provide unique tailor-made and innovative design consultancy and solutions, from conception through to development of design and implementation of projects, focused on sustainability, quality and exceptional results.
